- Equipment installed at user's location is the property of Skynet. User authorizes Skynet access to equipment as required for maintenance and or installation/removal. Skynet strives to maintain the highest quality connections, due to interference caused by outside influences (severe weather, rogue signals, solar flares, equipment failures etc) Connection speeds may vary.
- If your account is delinquent 30 days or greater, Skynet may terminate or restrict user access. User agrees to give a 30 day notice of termination. User agrees to pay a charge of $350.00 for equipment that is not returned.

Acceptable Use Policy

Skynet requires all those using its network to comply with this Acceptable Use Policy ("Policy"). Your use of Skynet network by originating electronic data or signals which contact or are transported by Skynet network or equipment manifests your agreement to be bound by all of the terms and conditions of this Policy. Your use of our network may be terminated or restricted if in the sole discretion of Skynet, you violate either the letter or the spirit of this policy, or for any other reason that Skynet in its sole discretion, deems appropriate cause for termination or restriction. Restriction includes reduction of speeds or protocols if it determined that the user activity interferes with our network or our ability to provide quality service to other users.

Users of our network agree to obey the laws, regulations and ordinances of the United States of America, the State of California and of those political subdivisions from where you use Skynet services. Skynet users should comply with the rules and regulations of all other networks and/or carriers over which, or thought which the user's electronic data or signal is transported. The user should comply with all reasonable policies, rules and regulations, if any, that are imposed by any network accessible through the Internet.

In the event that litigation or the threat of litigation ensues against Skynet, or any of its employees, or agents, which is related to the user's activity on the Internet or Skynet services, the user agrees that it will hold Skynet, its employees agents harmless and be liable to Skynet for the full costs of its defense including, but not limited, to Skynet attorney fees.

Failure to adhere to the this Policy may be cause for Skynet to immediately and permanently and without notice terminate a user's account, and/or block such user from accessing or contacting any of Skynet systems or equipment. If a user's account is terminated, Skynet will have no obligation to that user, or any other party, with regard to any data stored on Skynet network including but limited to, email or web site content which was accessible to the user. In addition, legal action may be initiated by Skynet against the offending user.

I agree to terms entered above for Fixed Wireless Internet contract with Skynet Internet Inc.
